CALL TO THE PUBLIC

Sharon Hadley, President of the DUP Kaysville Company, explained that about a year ago she made a proposal to the Council to donate a cabin for Heritage Park. She spent months looking for a cabin but could not get anyone to donate one. She then explored the possibility of building one. She explained that the DUP Kaysville Company would collect the money to build the cabin, which will cost approximately $25,000, and with help from the Sons of the Utah Pioneers, they would maintain it. She presented a picture of the type of cabin that could be built and asked the Council if they wanted her
